TRÉVALLON
FAMILLE DÜRRBACH

Domaine de Trévallon Blanc 2019

IGP Alpilles, France

THE VINTAGE

Very rare occurrence at the estate: temperature of -2°C at the beginning of March, after a very mild winter start. The Chardonnay vines that had already budded froze for the most part.

HARVEST

Start of the harvest with the Chardonnay on August 26th.
End of the harvest with the Clairette on October 1st.

VARIETALS

Marsanne 56%, Roussanne 21%, Grenache blanc 9%, Clairette 8%, Chardonnay 6%

TASTING

To the eye, the robe is brilliant, quite smooth with beautiful, fatty and persistent legs. The expressive nose of white melliferous flowers, candied fruits with a slight woody note reveals itself as very complex, delicate and rich. The attack in the mouth confirms the aromatic intensity and the great maturity of the vintage, balanced by a very refreshing finish. This balance between freshness, finesse, and maturity brings to mind a great white wine for aging, but one that can be enjoyed now as it is full of qualities.
